Hi,

I am [REDACTED].

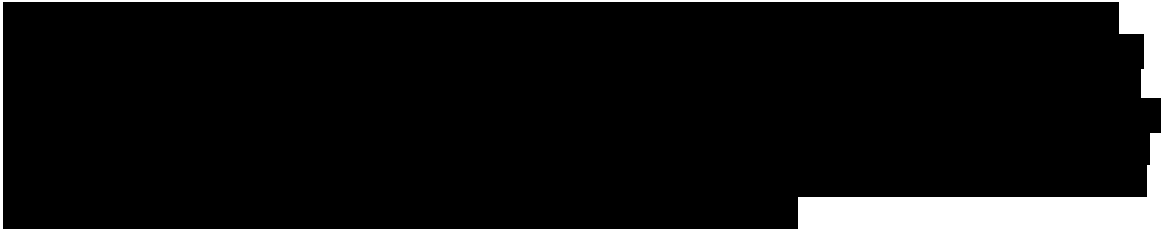

Can you please disclose the following information:

- How many footballers playing in the Premier League tested positive for a banned substance in the seasons of 2019/20 and so far in 20/21? Also known as adverse analytical findings.
- Of these, what banned substances were identified?
- Of these, how many were allowed to play on because it was established the substance had been used for medical purposes?
- How many received a ban after it was established the player had used the banned substance to enhance performance?

Thanks, [REDACTED]
